2. Telephoned Mr. Robert Smart, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, to advise that H. R. 5007 is scheduled for hearings of 10 June and the Agency has been requested to provide a representative to speak on the provisions of the bill which amend the CIA Act of 1949. I assured Mr. Smart that we were in favor of the amendments and he thanked us for alerting him to these developments. 3	Services Committee, to advise that H. Senator Engle was interested sincewas registered to do business in California. It was pointed out that probably his interest could be satisfied by working with the Air Force.
7. met with Reland Severy, Bureau of the Budget, and discussed the provisions of M. R. 5007, the Overseas Allowances bill which will affect this Agency. Mr. Severy saw no objection to the suggestions which we intend to propose to the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee tomorrow. However, he pointed out that we could not indicate to the Committee that the Bureau of the Budget had formally approved our position on this legislation.

Without using the exact terminology, Mrs. McGowan described who is continually writing to the Senator on farfetched subjects. His current correspondence asks why CIA, the FBI, and certain Government agencies have not reviewed and reported on released documents of the OSS, DOD and certain Japanese documents. It was suggested to Mrs. McGowan that the I thrown of Congress might be of assistance on this matter. In

9. Met with Colonel Schuppener and Mr. Carstarphen of the House Science and Astronautics Committee staff. Attending for the Agency were Messrs. Borel. . The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of an Agency appearance before the House Science and Astronautics Committee to inform the members of the Agency's role in the dissemination of scientific information. It appears doubtful that time will permit an appearance. However, Schuppener asked if we could be prepared to make an appearance on short notice and briefly discuss
